

CONTACT

Office of Admissions

admissions@indianatech.edu

260.422.5561

admissions.indianatech.edu

Professional Studies, MBA

ind.tc/child-development-bs

Indiana Tech's Master of Business Administration - Professional Studies is a unique offering for professionals who are ready to take their knowledge and professional experience to the next level. The program allows students to create a customized MBA experience that begins with a core of seven defined courses and culminates with your choice of three courses that best fit your personal and professional goals. In addition, it's something you can achieve in 14 months or less. All College of Business graduate courses focus on strategies in real-world business applications, making your classes relevant to today's changing marketplace. Where do you envision your career path taking you next? Let Indiana Tech's professional studies MBA concentration help you get there.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the Master of Business Administration - Professional Studies, you will be able to:

- Demonstrate advanced knowledge in the functional areas of business
- Analyze and identify external opportunities and threats, and propose strategic solutions
- Write and speak clearly and professionally
- Utilize technology as a tool for business strategy
- Demonstrate complex problem solving skills
- Function as a team leader with strong interpersonal skills
- Communicate effectively in a business setting
- Anticipate and meet the changing needs of customers, employers, clients and markets better than competitors

Career Outlook

An MBA in Professional Studies from Indiana Tech prepares you for a wide variety of in-demand careers. Below, you can explore career fields, salary information and employer demand from our partners at Lightcast, the leading labor market and career data provider in the U.S.

Warriors in the Workplace

Indiana Tech graduates work at great companies like:

- Zimmer Biomet
- Lincoln Financial Group
- Parkview Health
- Samtec
- Wabash National Corporation
- ~~Indiana University~~ Indiana University
- ~~Indiana University~~ Indiana University